PLANNING AND RESEARCH DIVISION
ROYAL BHUTAN POLICE, HEADQUARTERS
THIMPHU : BHUTAN

PREFACE

The Statistical Yearbook 2018 of Royal Bhutan Police is the 7th edition of its kind, which is published annually. The main purpose of the Statistical Yearbook is to provide in a single volume a comprehensive compilation of available statistics on crime in the country registered with the Royal Bhutan Police.

Ever since the compilation of data for the Statistical Yearbook series was initiated in 2012, improvements are consistently made to enhance its contents and coverage. The new data relating to criminal offences and Royal Bhutan Police are added as and when available.

Most of the statistics presented in the yearbook are extracted from more detailed database maintained by Crime and Operations Branch. The Crime and Operations Branch collects statistics from various field Divisions and Police Stations in the country, which are further verified for publication. Thimphu Traffic Division, Fire Service Division, and Private Arms Licensing Unit have also contributed their statistics for the publication.

We expect that the data in the yearbook will serve as the principal source of information for planners, policy makers, researchers and academicians. More importantly, it is expected that the officers and men of RBP to plan and guide their policing actions to further reduce and prevent crime in future will use statistics in this publication. Through this initiative, we also hope that the maintenance of information and updates will become more systematic and efficient.

We expect that there may be certain deficiencies in terms of content and coverage. However, continuous efforts will be made to improve its content, coverage and quality in the future publications. Any comments and suggestions in this regard will be highly appreciated.

ORGANOGRAM OF ROYAL BHUTAN POLICE

ROYAL BHUTAN POLICE

The Royal Bhutan Police under the Ministry of Home and Cultural Affairs is responsible for maintaining law and order and prevention of crime, and also considered as an important part of nation's security force.

The need for a separate law enforcement agency was felt soon after socio-economic development activities began in 1961, with start of the first five-year plan. It was formally established on 01 September 1965 on the command of His Majesty Jigme Dorji Wangchuk, the Third Druk Gyalpo, with 555 personnel (23 officers and 532 troops) reassigned from the Royal Bhutan Army. The 1st of September is celebrated as 'Police Raising Day' every year. However, its independent statutory basis was first codified with the Royal Bhutan Police Act of 1980. This framework was repealed and replaced in its entirety by the Royal Bhutan Police Act of 2009.

In addition to law enforcement, traffic control and providing security, the mandate of the Royal Bhutan Police has grown since the Act of 2009 to include managing prisons, facilitating youth development and rehabilitation and disaster management. The Act of 2009 provides the Royal Bhutan Police a substantive and procedural framework for jurisdictions, powers of arrest (with and without warrant), investigation, prosecution, search and seizure, summoning witnesses, and regulating public assembly and public nuisance. It also systematizes a framework for receiving complaints from the public.

The first Police Service Board (PSB) comprising 11 members was constituted on 22 June 2012 as the highest body to formulate policies, rules, regulations and guidelines concerning organizational and administrative matters. The board meeting is conducted biannually. The first meeting is conducted in the month of April and the second in October.

The Chief of Police, Additional and Deputy Chiefs of Police are appointed by the Druk Gyalpo from among a list of names recommended by the Prime Minister, from the list submitted by the Police Service Board based on seniority, qualification and capability. The Chief of Police on recommendation of the Police Service Board appoints any other appointments, as well as Directors of Training Institutes. The Chief of Police is empowered with wide discretion in the command of the Royal Bhutan Police, including budgetary matters, policy decisions, promotions, awards, and punishments on the advice of the Police Service Board.
